

CareerFasten Scholarship Program 2014

CareerFasten LLC is a diversified educational and career consulting company with expertise in college admissions, career planning, and career development.

CareerFasten and Dr. Rajwant Singh Bedi have been helping students learn about their education and career options for the past five years. This year we are offering a total of three scholarships to qualified students to help defray college costs and further their education goals. This scholarship program was developed specifically to assist students facing unanticipated and severe financial and social barriers to higher education. The purpose is to recognize and encourage students to achieve their goals.

PROGRAM OVERVIEW (FALL 2014)

1. Two incoming college freshman will be selected to each receive a $1,500 stipend towards the college of their choice and a Certificate of Achievement.
2. One incoming high school senior will be selected to receive a full-year counseling and college admissions application preparation program (valued at $3,000) and a Certificate of Achievement.
3. Students will be honored at a personal gathering and featured on CareerFasten.com.

SELECTION CRITERIA

Applicants must be enrolled at any public, private or charter high school, 2-year or four-year college. Students must have a cumulative GPA of 3.0 on a scale of 4.0 in high school. If a student has attended more than one high school, all official transcripts must be submitted. Scholarship applications will be considered on the basis of merit and need in congruence with CareerFasten's mission to improve access to higher education for all students.
